Genesis 18:1-33

Gen 18:1

The LORD appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day.

He lifted up his eyes and looked, and saw that three men stood near him.

Gen 18:2

When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself to the earth,

Gen 18:3

...and said, "My lord, if now I have found favour in your sight, please don't go away from your servant."

"Now let a little water be fetched, wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree."

Gen 18:4

"I will get a piece of bread so you can refresh your heart. After that you may go your way, now that you have come to your servant."

Gen 18:5

They said, "Very well, do as you have said."

Gen 18:5

Gen 18:6

Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly prepare three seahs of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes."

Gen 18:7

Abraham ran to the herd, and fetched a tender and good calf, and gave it to the servant. He hurried to dress it.

Gen 18:8

He took butter, milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them.

He stood by them under the tree, and they ate.

Gen 18:8

Gen 18:9

They asked him, "Where is Sarah, your wife?" He said, "There, in the tent."

Abraham's surprised look 😊

Gen 18:10

He said, "I will certainly return to you at about this time next year; and behold, Sarah your wife will have a son."

Gen 18:10

Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind him.

Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age. Sarah had passed the age of childbearing.

Gen 18:11

Gen 18:12

Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"

The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Will I really bear a child when I am old?'"

Gen 18:13

Is anything too hard for the LORD?"

"At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes round, and Sarah will have a son."

Gen 18:14

Then Sarah denied it, saying, "I didn't laugh," for she was afraid."

Gen 18:15

He said, "No, but you did laugh."

Gen 18:16

The men rose up from there, and looked towards Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way.

The LORD said, "Will I hide from Abraham what I do, since Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him?"

Gen 18:17-18

"For I have known him, to the end that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice;

Gen 18:19

...to the end that the LORD may bring on Abraham that which he has spoken of him."

Gen 18:20

The LORD said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous,"

"I will go down now, and see whether their deeds are as bad as the reports which have come to me. If not, I will know."

Gen 18:21

Killing the Righteous?

Genesis 18:22-33

Gen 18:22

The men turned from there, and went towards Sodom, but Abraham stood yet before the LORD.

Abraham came near, and said, "Will you consume the righteous with the wicked?"

Gen 18:23-24

What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it?"

"May it be far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn't the Judge of all the earth do right?"

Gen 18:25

The LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Gen 18:26

Abraham answered, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord, although I am dust and ashes. What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous?"

Gen 18:27

Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?"

Gen 18:28

He said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

Gen 18:29

He spoke to him yet again, and said,
"What if there are forty found there?"

Gen 18:29

He said, "I will not do it for the forty's sake."

Gen 18:30

He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if there are thirty found there?" He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

Gen 18:31

He said, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord. What if there are twenty found there?" He said, "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake."

He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak just once more. What if ten are found there?"

Gen 18:32

He said, "I will not destroy it for the ten's sake."

The LORD went his way, as soon as he had finished communing with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Gen 18:33

Genesis 19:1-38

Gen 19:1

The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom.

Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them.

Gen 19:1

He bowed himself with his face
to the earth, and he said,

Gen 19:2

"See now, my lords, please come into your servant's house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you can rise up early, and go on your way."

They said, "No, but we will stay in the street all night."

Gen 19:2

He urged them greatly, and they came in with him, and entered into his house.

Gen 19:3

Gen 19:3

He made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

BAG!
BAG!
BAG!

Gen 19:4

But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter.

A comic book illustration showing three men with shocked or angry expressions. They are wearing red head coverings. The background is dark with red diagonal lines. Three speech bubbles, each containing the word 'BAG!' in white, bold, outlined letters, are positioned in the center. The man on the left has a wide-eyed, open-mouthed expression. The man in the middle has a similar expression with a slightly different mouth shape. The man on the right has a more intense, shouting expression with a wide-open mouth.

Gen 19:5

They called to Lot, and said to him, "Where are the men who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them."

Gen 19:6-7

Lot went out to them through the door, and shut the door after himself. He said, "Please, my brothers, don't act so wickedly."

"See now, I have two virgin daughters.
Please let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them what seems good to you."

Gen 19:8

"Only don't do anything to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof."

Gen 19:8

They said, "Stand back!"

Gen 19:9

Then they said, "This one fellow came in to live as a foreigner, and he appoints himself a judge. Now we will deal worse with you than with them!"

Gen 19:9

They pressed hard on the man Lot, and came near to break the door.

But the men reached out their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door.

Gen 19:10

Gen 19:11

They struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

The men said to Lot, "Do you have anybody else here? Sons-in-law,

Lot tries to convince others to come 😞

Gen 19:12

...your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: "

Gen 19:13

"For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown so great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

Gen 19:14

Run for your lives!
Genesis 19:14-22

Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry his daughters, and said, "Get up! Get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy the city!"

Gen 19:14

But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking.

When the morning came, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city."

Gen 19:15

But he lingered; and the men grabbed his hand, his wife's hand, and his two daughters' hands, the LORD being merciful to him; and they took him out, and set him outside of the city.

Gen 19:16

It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that he said, "Escape for your life!

Gen 19:17

Don't look behind you, and don't stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed!"

Lot said to them, "Oh, not so, my lord. See now, your servant has found favour in your sight, and you have magnified your loving kindness, which you have shown to me in saving my life.

Gen 19:18-19

I can't escape to the mountain, lest evil overtake me, and I die."

"See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one.

Gen 19:20

Oh let me escape there (isn't it a little one?), and my soul will live."

Gen 19:21

He said to him, "Behold, I have granted your request concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken."

"Hurry, escape there, for I can't do anything until you get there."

Gen 19:22

Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

Gen 19:22

Here comes the fire!

Genesis 19:23-38

Gen 19:23

The sun had risen on the earth
when Lot came to Zoar.

Gen 19:24

Then the LORD rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah sulphur and fire from the LORD out of the sky.

He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground.

Gen 19:25

But Lot's wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

Gen 19:26

Gen 19:27

Abraham went up early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

Gen 19:28

He looked towards Sodom and Gomorrah, and towards all the land of the plain, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace.

Gen 19:29

When God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

Lot went up out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar.

Gen 19:30

He lived in a cave with his two daughters.

Gen 19:30

The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us in the way of all the earth."

Gen 19:31

"Come, let's make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our father's family line."

Gen 19:32

They made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she arose.

Gen 19:33

A comic book illustration showing two women in conversation. The woman on the left has long purple hair and is wearing a purple headscarf and a purple garment. She has a surprised expression with wide eyes and an open mouth. The woman on the right has long brown hair and is wearing a green headscarf and a purple garment. She has a more serious or determined expression. The background is dark and indistinct.

It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger,
"Behold, I lay last night with my father.

Gen 19:34

Let's make him drink wine again tonight.
You go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve our father's family line."

They made their father drink wine that night also. The younger went and lay with him. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she got up.

Gen 19:35

Thus both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father.

Gen 19:36

The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab.
He is the father of the Moabites to this day.

Gen 19:37-38

The younger also bore a son, and called his name Ben Ammi. He is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

Genesis 20:1-18

An illustration of Abraham and Sarah on a journey. Abraham, on the left, has a long white beard and hair, and is wearing a yellow tunic with a large circular pendant. He is looking towards the right with a surprised expression. Sarah, on the right, has long dark hair and is wearing a red shawl. She is also looking towards the right with a surprised expression. In the background, there is a brown horse and a bright sun in a blue sky with white clouds.

Gen 20:1

Abraham travelled from there towards the land of the South, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He lived as a foreigner in Gerar.

Gen 20:2

Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister."

Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

Gen 20:2

But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Behold, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken; for she is a man's wife."

Gen 20:3

Gen 20:4

Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation? Didn't he tell me, 'She is my sister'?"

"She, even she herself, said, 'He is my brother.' I have done this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands."

Gen 20:5

God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me."

Gen 20:6

Gen 20:6

"Therefore I didn't allow you to touch her. Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live."

Gen 20:7

"If you don't restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours."

Gen 20:8

Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men were very scared.

Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin?"

Gen 20:9

Gen 20:9

"You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done!"

Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?"

Gen 20:10

Gen 20:11

Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my wife's sake.' "

Gen 20:12

"Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife."

Gen 20:13

"When God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, "He is my brother."'

Gen 20:14

Abimelech took sheep and cattle, male servants and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored Sarah, his wife, to him.

Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you. Dwell where it pleases you."

Gen 20:15

To Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver."

Gen 20:16

"Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all that are with you. In front of all you are vindicated."

Gen 20:16

Gen 20:17

Abraham prayed to God. God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his female servants, and they bore children.

Gen 20:18

For the LORD had closed up tight all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

BIBLE: Genesis 20:1-18

20:1 Abraham travelled from there towards the land of the South, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He lived as a foreigner in Gerar.

Genesis 21:1-34

Gen 21:1

The LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did to Sarah as he had spoken.

Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

Gen 21:2

Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.

Gen 21:3

Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Gen 21:4

Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him.

Gen 21:5

Sarah said, "God has made me laugh.
Everyone who hears will laugh with me."

Gen 21:6-7

She said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children?
For I have borne him a son in his old age."

The child grew and was weaned. Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Gen 21:8

Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

Gen 21:9

Gen 21:10

Therefore she said to Abraham,
"Cast out this servant and her son!
For the son of this servant will not be heir with my son, Isaac."

The thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son.

Gen 21:11

Gen 21:12

God said to Abraham, "Don't let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your servant."

Gen 21:12

"In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For your offspring will be named through Isaac."

"I will also make a nation of the son of the servant, because he is your child."

Gen 21:13

Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a container of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder; and gave her the child, and sent her away.

Gen 21:14

Hagar + Ishmael

Genesis 21:14-34

Gen 21:14

She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.

The water in the container was spent, and she put the child under one of the shrubs.

Gen 21:15

Gen 21:16

She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, "Don't let me see the death of the child."

She sat opposite him, and lifted up her voice, and wept. God heard the voice of the boy.

Gen 21:16

Gen 21:17

The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar?"

Gen 21:17

“Don't be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.”

"Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him with your hand. For I will make him a great nation."

Gen 21:18

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a well in a lush green field. The well is constructed from grey stone blocks and has a black metal archway over its opening. The scene is filled with bright green grass and foliage, and several white starburst sparkles are scattered across the upper right portion of the image. A dark, blurry shape is visible in the bottom left corner.

Gen 21:19

God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water.

Gen 21:19

She went, filled the container with water, and gave the boy a drink.

Gen 21:20

God was with the boy, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness, and as he grew up, became an archer.

Gen 21:21

He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother got a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.

At that time, Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his army spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do."

Gen 21:22

"Now, therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son.

Gen 21:23

But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner."

Abraham said, "I will swear."

Gen 21:24

Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

Gen 21:25

Abimelech said, "I don't know who has done this thing. You didn't tell me, and I didn't hear of it until today."

Gen 21:26

Abraham took sheep and cattle, and gave them to Abimelech.

Gen 21:27

Those two made a covenant.

Gen 21:27

Gen 21:28-29

Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. Abimelech said to Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs, which you have set by themselves, mean?"

An illustration of two men shaking hands. The man on the left has grey hair and a beard, wearing a purple robe. The man on the right has a large yellow nose, grey hair, and a beard, wearing a red robe. They are standing outdoors with a blurred background of green foliage and a blue sky. A white text box with a black border is centered over the image, containing the text of Genesis 21:30. The text box has a black header with the reference 'Gen 21:30' in white.

Gen 21:30

He said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well."

Gen 21:31

Therefore he called that place Beersheba, because they both swore an oath there.
So they made a covenant at Beersheba.

Gen 21:32

Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of his army, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

Gen 21:33-34

BIBLE: Genesis 21:1-34

1:1 The LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did to Sarah as he had spoken.

2 Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 Abraham called his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.

4 Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him. 6 Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me."
